Joe Tsai

Owner

Joe Tsai is one of the founders of Alibaba Group (NYSE: BABA), a global Internet company founded in 1999. He served as chief financial officer of the company until 2013 and is now executive vice chairman, overseeing the company's strategic acquisitions and investments. Tsai has been a member of the company's board of directors since its inception.

Formerly a tax lawyer and a private equity investor, Tsai was an associate with Sullivan & Cromwell and worked for Sweden's Investor AB, the Wallenberg family holding company.

Originally from Taiwan, Tsai started playing lacrosse at the Lawrenceville School in New Jersey. He went on to play college lacrosse at Yale, where he earned a BA in Economics and East Asian Studies in 1986. Tsai received his JD from Yale Law School in 1990.

Steve Govett

President & Governor

Steve Govett was named president of the San Diego Seals when the expansion team was awarded by the League and publicly announced on August 29, 2017.

From 2002 to June 2017, Govett was the president, general manager and governor of the Colorado Mammoth, owned and operated by Denver-based Kroenke Sports & Entertainment (KSE). In Govett's tenure, he built one of the League's most successful organizations both on and off the field. The Mammoth was one of just two teams to make the playoffs 14 times in his 15 seasons, and the city took notice. Colorado finished first or second in League attendance 14 times.

He was instrumental in bringing the National Lacrosse League and former Washington Power franchise to Colorado, just as he was in bringing professional lacrosse to southern California in 2017.

Under Govett's direction, the Mammoth claimed three division titles and won the NLL championship in 2006. His leadership helped grow downtown Denver's sports and entertainment economy, while the team made a positive impact on area youth with various charitable donations and community outreach programs including player clinics, school appearances and hospital visits.

Govett was named the NLL's Executive of the Year in 2004, and has served as a long-time contributor to the League on multiple business fronts. He works closely with the Commissioner to ensure the long-term vitality of the NLL and its teams, and has served as the NLL's Chairman of the Board of Governors on two occasions.

Govett has extensive experience in international competition, having twice served as general manager of the U.S. world indoor lacrosse team. He served on the staff of the 2006 Team Canada world champion outdoor team, and helped assemble the roster that won the world title in the 2014 FIL World Lacrosse Championships. In the 1990s, Govett was a medal-winning player for his native Canadian squad.

Josh Gross

Vice President, Business Operations & Alternate Governor

Josh Gross enters his 16th season in professional lacrosse with the launch of the San Diego Seals. He was formally named the team's vice president of business operations when the team was announced on August 29, 2017.

Gross is a veteran of the professional sports industry, having previously overseen ticket sales, sponsorship, public relations, fan development and marketing efforts across multiple sports properties. He spent the past 13 seasons with the Colorado Mammoth, a division of Denver-based Kroenke Sports & Entertainment (KSE). The Mammoth shattered NLL attendance records during his tenure, while becoming the model franchise in the League.

As vice president of business operations for the Mammoth, Gross was responsible for providing a superior fan experience while connecting departments within KSE to ensure consistent messaging and information-sharing. His work included growing the Mammoth brand in the marketplace while leading the team's public relations and fan development initiatives. His 2017 'Lacrosse Out Cancer' effort was recognized by NLLTV as the League's top community moment of the year.

He previously represented the Mammoth while serving as Alternate Governor on the NLL's Board of Governors, and has similar responsibilities in San Diego. Gross is a member of the league's marketing committee, helping craft a narrative that grows the League on both micro and macro levels. He also singlehandedly spearheaded the League's ticket sales information-sharing application, which provides teams a platform to discuss best practices and quantitative results.

Patrick Merrill

General Manager and Head Coach

Patrick Merrill will lead the Seals in their inaugural season after being named the first general manager and head coach in San Diego Seals history on April 3, 2018.

Merrill, 39, spent 15 years as a defender in the National Lacrosse League. The Toronto, Ontario native was the first-overall pick in the 2002 National Lacrosse League Entry Draft. He played in 194 games in the league, registering 18 goals, 65 assists, 570 penalty minutes and 818 face-off wins.

Merrill won two Minto Cups (Canadian Junior 'A' national championship) in three seasons as the head coach of the Six Nations Arrows. A co-founder and coach at The Hill Academy (Ontario), a perennial lacrosse powerhouse, Merrill claims multiple (U.S.) national titles to his resumé.

A graduate of Mercyhurst College, Merrill won three NLL titles and four Mann Cup championships (Canadian Senior 'A' national) as a player.

At the international level, he was part of Team Canada's silver-medal-winning team at the 2010 World Field Lacrosse Championships in Manchester, England. A year later, he brought home the gold at the FIL World Indoor Lacrosse Championships in Prague, Czech Republic.

Josh Sanderson

Offensive Coordinator & Director of Player Personnel

Josh Sanderson entered his first professional coaching role and first season on the Seals bench after being named the offensive coordinator and director of player personnel on May 1, 2018. No stranger to the NLL, Sanderson spent 19 seasons as one of the most dangerous players in the league and the last two as the Assistant General Manager with the Toronto Rock. The Orangeville, Ontario native ranks second in National Lacrosse League history in assists (908), assists per game (3.39), and games played (268). Known by his peers and teammates as “Shooter,” Sanderson was a first-ballot NLL Hall of Fame inductee. He won two NLL championships (2005 & 2009) and was a nine-time All-Pro. He recorded 60 or more points in every season from 2002 to 2015, including five 100-plus point campaigns (which ranks tied for first in NLL history).

Bill Greer

Defensive Coordinator

NLL champion Bill Greer will oversee the Seals defense after being named the defensive coordinator on May 1, 2018. In his first professional coaching job, Greer will use his 15-season tenure in the NLL to guide a strong defensive unit. The Oshawa, Ontario native was the 9th overall pick in the 2001 National Lacrosse League Entry Draft. He played in 190 career games, registering 59 goals, 99 assists and 165 penalty minutes. The savvy defenseman won a NLL championship with Rochester in 2007 and scored the game-winning goal in the championship game. Greer captured a gold medal with Team Canada at the 2011 World Indoor Lacrosse Championships.

Ryan Boyle US Scout

Ryan Boyle is regarded as one of the smartest players in the history of lacrosse. He was selected 3rd overall in the 2004 NLL Entry Draft. In 2005 he was named NLL Rookie of the Year and won the rookie scoring title. Boyle played six seasons in the NLL. The Princeton University graduate was a 4-time All American and 2-time Ivy League player of the year. He is a 3-time member of Team USA, earning Gold medals in 2002 and 2010 and a Silver in 2006. Boyle has extensive experience with rising stars in the lacrosse world as the co-founder and CEO of Trilogy Lacrosse, and as an ESPN lacrosse analyst.

Travis Gillespie International Scout

A native of Maple Ridge, British Columbia, Travis Gillespie has played lacrosse since the age of four. Gillespie is a two-time DII NCAA champion with Limestone College, as well as a three-time All-American. He was then selected fourth overall in the 2002 NLL Entry Draft. Gillespie has extensive experience in the international game, having been a part of Team Canada in the past, and now serving as the Head Coach of the Taiwan Lacrosse Association.

Sean Walsh Assistant General Manager

Sean Walsh entered his first season as an Assistant General Manager in the National Lacrosse League in 2018. He has significant team responsibilities including salary cap management, scheduling and the team's day-to-day operations. The Philadelphia native played two years of NCAA lacrosse at Roanoke College. He has served the San Diego lacrosse community as a youth coach since 2014. His uncle, John Webster, was the first overall pick in the 1993 NLL Entry Draft.

Credentials

Requests for all credentials must go through the Seals communications department. Full-season credentials will be granted to media that cover the Seals on a regular basis. Single-game credentials will be granted to media with a written request submitted at least 48 hours prior to game time. All credentials are issued at the sole discretion of the San Diego Seals. Please send requests to hannah.kosh@sealslax.com.

Media Entrance

Members of the working media enter Pechanga Arena San Diego through the media entrance located at the bottom of the ramp in the truck and buses lot on the northeast side of the arena.

Press Seating

Press seating at Pechanga Arena San Diego is located on the north side of the building at the top of Section 1.

Press Dining Room

The media dining area is located on the service level just south of the Seals locker room. Food and beverages will be available to the working media beginning two hours prior to game-time.

Photographers

Only those photographers on assignment will be allowed access to designated photography locations at floor level and in overhead positions. Photography positions will be assigned by the San Diego Seals.

Locker Rooms

Requests for individual interviews must go through the Seals communications staff. Locker rooms are off-limits to the media at all times.

Interviews

Media requesting access to players or staff for interviews must contact Hannah Kosh (hannah.kosh@sealslax.com) of the San Diego Seals.
